Are Japs Coddled?

By DeWITT MacKENZIE,
Foreign Affairs Analyst

A READER of this column, who belongs to the "Hang Hirohito club," demands to know why the devil we are coddling the Japs—allowing them, among other things, to maintain a government contains names that we long have associated with aggression?

This inquiry seems to voice a fairly wide-spread impression that Japan is "getting off too easy." It probably arises from the fact that the Mikado has been allowed thus far to continue on the throne, since a lot of folk mistakenly hold him mainly responsible for Nippon's sins.

Actually the conclusion that we are coddling Japan is about as far from the truth as it would be possible to get. Even if it were true that we are going a bit easy at the moment, let me ask this:

How are you going to police a country, and put handcuffs on malefactors, before you have occupied that country? What more could MacArthur, or anybody else, have done than has been done?

The American supreme commander seems to have a very tight rein on the Jap government. He has been doing a grand job of long distance control, as the results testify. Of course, he could have punctuated his orders with a few more atomic bombs—and there are some who would have applauded such action—but it never has been the aim of the Allies to destroy the Japanese as a race or to enslave them and this was categorically stated in the Potsdam surrender terms.

It's hard to see why anyone should think Japan isn't being dealt with severely enough. She is being stripped of her empire and reduced to a third-rate little kingdom—without navy, army, airforce, or any industrial equipment with which she might manufacture war materiel. She is making terrible payment for her misdeeds.

We needn't worry about the Mikado and his present government. As soon as we have occupied Japan with troops, the government can be reconstructed if we so wish. The only promise made regarding Hirohito is that he may remain on the throne for the present, but that the Japanese people will in due course determine by vote what sort of government they want. All persons, irrespective of position, who have been guilty of war crimes will be punished.

So when we land in Japan next week we shall go in with free hands.

CRESCENT MACHINE VOTES PAY RAISE

LEETONIA, Aug. 25.—Despite the fact that war contract cutbacks are causing layoffs in many plants, the Crescent Machine Co. hasn't laid off a single worker and a wage increase, retroactive to July 1 has been given all shop and foundry workers, Ray C. DuBrucq, general manager, announced today.

With enough of a backlog in private and government contracts to keep them busy on a 55-hour a week basis until the end of the year, the Leetonia firm is still seeking employes as ardently as they were while war-time shortages were at full peak, he said.

The first annual picnic of the Crescent Machine Co. was held today at Firestone park, Columbiana.

FHA Resumes Credit Terms For Nation's Home Builders

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—Easy credit terms on home-building came back to the nation today. The home-building will follow shortly.

Not only homes—but also washing machines, autos, tires, and paper—figured in the news for Amercans.

But along with the bright tidings came rumblings of trouble over prices. The government wants to hold prices down. Some manufacturers said the government goes too far.

Here's the way things looked:

1. The Federal Housing administration announced it is returning to its pre-war program of insuring mortgages on homes. Ten thousand private institutions — banks and others—stand ready to lend the money with FHA backing.

2.—Washing machines started trickling off production lines but the industry isn't satisfied with prices. Washing machine makers are seeking 15 per cent more than they got in May, 1942. The OPA wants prices to be only 5.2 per cent higher.

General Electric said it will put its own washing machines in warehouses until higher prices are granted.

Paper Restrictions Eased

3.—And here's the dope on other things-to-come:

Autos — the automotive council for war production, happy over yesterday's WPB order removing all limits on auto output, said 500,000 cars between now and Christmas are more than possible. Unless the rules are changed, these cars won't have spare tires.

Tires—the Army put 255,000 of its truck tires on the market for civilians. The Commerce department will sell them to dealers. The WPB said it expects "real improvement" in the truck tire situation within one month, in passenger tires in three months.

The OPA gave tire dealers permission to build up their inventories. It's necessary before rationing can be lifted.

Paper—books and magazines will grow bigger. The WPB ended all restrictions on the use of paper for those purposes—also for commercial printing, greeting cards, picture post cards, and wallpaper.

Newspapers will continue to be limited in the use of newsprint, which is still scarce.

The WPB also promised more toilet paper, facial tissue, paper towels and napkins, paper straws, wax paper, and window shades. Manufacturers were told to go the limit on those items.

Penicillin—the last controls on the "wonder drug" will be lifted Tuesday. Plenty for civilians soon.

Ammunition—this one isn't so encouraging. The WPB is considering the lifting of bans on the sale of civilian ammunition, but fears such a step might deprive farmers, ranchers and policemen of the shells they need to fight off the crows, wolves and burglars. A decision is expected next week.

More Cloth For Public

Cloth—the Army snipped in half its requirements for cotton rayon and nylon for the rest of the year. That puts millions of square yards of those fabrics on the backs and legs of civilians—eventually.

Washing machines weren't the only things that stirred up arguments over prices.

Makers of lightweight underwear said some mills would have to shut down unless they received more for their product.

Price Administrator Chester Bowles was determined to keep the cost of living from going up, but it was plain he would have some tough decisions to make.

As for the FHA and its home mortgage insurance, here's how it works:

The actual lending is done by building and loan associations, banks, and other financial institutions.

The FHA insures the loan. If the home-owner can't pay it back, the FHA takes the loss.

FHA's Program

FHA insurance means the home-owner gets easy terms, low monthly payments. The financial institution can't charge more than a 4½ per cent interest. In addition the FHA takes one-half per cent a year as its insurance fee.

During the war, FHA has insured loans for war housing. That program is finished. FHA also insures loans for repairs, and for buying homes.

WPB controls on new construction are still on, and materials are hard to get. All that will soon be changed. A wave of home-building is expected.

Under the FHA program, if you build a home costing less than $6,000 you have to put up at least 10 per cent down payment, and can borrow the rest.

If the home costs between $6,000 and $10,000, you put up 10 per cent of the first $6,000, plus 20 per cent of the amount exceeding $6,000. If the cost is over $10,000, you have to put up 20 per cent of the whole amount.

The government told girls 16 and 17 years old working in plants under contract with the government to get out and go back to school. The AFL and CIO pushed back-to-school movements.

COMMITTEE TO ADVISE VETS

Joe Kelley Named Chairman of Veterans Referral Group

Organization of a Veterans Referral committee—to give advice and whatever assistance may be needed to returning veterans in the Salem district — was invistigated last night at a meeting at the Memorial building.

Joe Kelley was chosen chairman of the group, which was organized following action urged by the County Veterans coordinating committee appointed last spring by the county commissioners. Lester Lehman and Kelley were named by the commissioners to organize Salem for veterans service.

Tentative plans of the group, which intends to act as a "listening post" for veterans with problems after discharge, include the compilation of a city directory of citizens so situated in verious business, industrial and professional fields that they can be of assistance in helping returning men solve problems and gain action they desire in their rehabilitation.

Kelley named H. E. Zepernick, Supt. of Schools E. S. Kerr and John J. Lewis as a starting commit choose advisors to be listed on the directory, which will be given to each returning discharged serviceman as he reports to his draft board.

Kelley named Don E. Beattie secretary of the Referral committee

The Salem Boosters club, through Kelley, offered its services in having the directories properly prepared for distribution. Funds for the project will come from the organization's servicemen's gift fund.

The three-man committee will meet with Kelley at the Memorial building at 8 p. m. Tuesday to proceed further with plans for the directory.

A general meeting, for the committee as it now stands and any other interested parties who would like to help, will be held later next week.

STILL A QUESTION

It's Anybody's Guess Whether Adm. Halsey Will Ride Hirohito's White Horse

MANILA, Aug. 25. — It's still anyone's guess whether Admiral William F. Halsey will ride Emperor Hirohito's white horse through Tokyo.

Adm. Raymond A. Spruance, Fifth fleet commander, was asked for his opinion in a press conference aboard his flagship here.

"I can't predict..... I don't know whether the emperor's white horse survived the bombing. And I also don't know," he added with a twinkle, "how long it has been since Halsey has ridden a white horse."

2,000 Missouri Crewmen May Witness Surrender

ABOARD ADMIRAL SPRUANCE FLAGSHIP, MANILA BAY, Aug. 25. —The final Japanese surrender ceremony aboard the battleship Missouri can be witnessed by hundreds of spectators—if it is held on the open deck, where as many as 2,000 crewmen regularly assemble for movies.

This flagship, which cannot now be identified by name, is identical with the powerful Missouri. Her fantail extends more than 200 feet from her after battery of 16-inch guns to her stern. Officers said it would be feasible—weather permitting—to hold surrender ceremonies on the Missouri's fantail.

Downed Tokyo Fliers Happy As They Arrive In Chungking

By SPENCER MOOSA

CHUNGKING, Aug. 25.—Three haggard American airmen, interned since the raid on Japan led by Lt. Gen. James H. Doolittle April 18, 1942, arrived from Peiping by plane today.

Almost their first words were said in thanksgiving for American food.

The fliers were Lt. Chase J. Nielsen of Hyrum, Utah; Lt. Robert L. Hite of Earth, Tex., and Sergt. Jacob D. Deshazer, formerly of Madras, Ore.

"It's good to get some G.I. food into your belly again, after that hollow feeling," said Sergt. Deshazer.

Lt. Nielsen said: "I feel I am a real American again."

The three were brought to Chungking by way of Sian, in Shensi province, after a parachuted rescue team discovered them in Japanese hands.

A fourth flier found with them was left behind with the rescue team. He is Lt. George Barr, formerly of Queens, N. Y., who was reported suffering from beriberi, a result of starvation, and not in a condition to be moved now.

Happiest Day In Three Years

For the three who stepped from the C-47 transport "Lady Jean" onto the runway at the Seven Dragons airdrome outside Chungking, it was the happiest day in more than three years.

The Chinese capital, celebrating the fliers' rescue, was ready to offer its best.

Deshazer was the bombardier and Hite was co-pilot of the same plane. They had been together since they bailed out into Free China territory and were taken prisoners by Japanese troops who had disguised themselves as Chinese soldiers.

Hite and Deshazer had attacked Nagoya. Nielsen, navigator in another plane, had attacked Tokyo. Nielsen's plane crash-landed at sea. He swam four hours to reach land, staggered ashore and collapsed. He awoke the next morning to find two large vultures on a rock looking down at him.

"Our life raft, it seemed, was made in Japan—because it didn't work," Nielson said. "But our life vests did."

Never Heard War News

After all of his experiences — and security reasons still prevent a full narration of them, or of those endured by the other two airmen—Nielson had a sense of humor, and his gaunt face often crinkled into a smile as he talked.

The fliers said they had never received news of the progress of the war, and had no idea it was about to end.

Hite said the daily routine during confinement was:

"Breakfast, lunch, supper. Exercise with a guard available. Nothing else. Nothing to read."

Nielsen said Oct. 15, 1942, while confined in Shanghai, he learned he had been sentenced to die but Emperor Hirohito changed the sentence to life imprisonment with "special treatment."

Nielson was kept in Tokyo 56 days and reshipped to Shanghai, then transferred to a prison. He said he was allowed to wash his teeth and have a bath and haircut for the first time after he had been a prisoner 120 days.

A few days ago, the night of Aug. 20, he said, the Japanese came into the American quarters, handed over a bucket of hot water for shaving, and announced the war over.

MARINES POISED FOR OCCUPATION OF JAP MAINLAND

By MURLIN SPENCER

ENROUTE TO JAPAN, Aug. 21.—(Delayed.)—Ten thousand American and British Marines and Bluejackets, spearheaded by a crack United States Marine regiment, have been poised within 300 miles of Japan for days awaiting orders to begin the occupation.

Backed by Admiral Halsey's Third fleet and supporting units of the British fleet, the destination of the landing forces was Yokosuka naval base, 39 miles southeast of Tokyo, with its airfield and prisoner of war camp.

Marines who are veterans of many Pacific landings anticipated no trouble but were prepared.

They were completely equipped for battle. Tanks, artillery and other instruments of war accompanied them.

These men have been instructed by their commanding officer to treat the Japanese with proper respect but not to fraternize. The Americans are expected to be stern, businesslike.

No Souvenir Hunting

They were told what formerly would be souvenir hunting would now be looting. Japanese soldiers who lay down their arms will be held in barracks under their own officers.

Six hours after President Truman formally announced Japan's acceptance of the Allied surrender ultimatum Aug. 15, six fast transports moved out of Guam headed northward under destroyer escort. They observed every wartime precaution—nightly blackouts, anti-submarine evasive action, guns uncovered and ready for action.

The rendezvous was made with the Third fleet's battleships, carriers, cruisers and destroyers. While awaiting orders and to give all branches of the service the honor of being about the first to land on Japan, 1,800 bluejackets were taken from various ships and organized into a fighting force. Two thousand Marines serving aboard warships were also gathered. British Royal Marines and Bluejackets, in smaller numbers, were also formed into landing units.

Probably the first to go ashore will be a veteran regiment of assault Marines.

7 GERMANS DIE IN U. S. EXECUTION

FORT LEAVENWORTH, Kas., Aug. 25—Stoical, and still allegiant to a Nazism they refused to believe was beaten, seven German prisoners of war—former members of Wolf-pack submarine crews—died eary this morning on the gallows for the "traitor slaying" of a fellow-prisoner.

The men—Helmut Carl Fischer, 22; Fritz Franke, 21; Gunther Kulsen, 22; Heinrich Ludwig, 25; Bernhard Reyak, 21; Otto Stengel, 26; and Rolf Wizuy, 23—were executed at the U. S. disciplinary barracks here.

They went to their deaths one year and nine days after an army general court-martial found them guilty of the murder March 15, 1944, of Werner Dreschler, a fellow-prisoner whom they had accused of giving information of military value to the United States.

Dreschler's body, the army report said, was found by guards the morning after the slaying in a bath-house of the Papage Park, Ariz., prisoner-of-war camp.

The seven Nazi submarine sailors, the report continued, confessed to beating and choking Dreschler, then hanging him from a rafter.

STORM FAILS TO POSTPONE 1ST LANDINGS

317th U. S. Troop Carrier Group Will Reach Atsugi Airdrome

By VERN HAUGLAND

OKINAWA, April 25.—First Allied airborne landings in the Tokyo area were rescheduled today by the 317th Troop Carrier group for tomorrow as a typhoon expected to hit the Ryukyu islands passed to the northwest and dissipated itself against Japan.

(This dispatch was filed from Okinawa almost simultaneously with General MacArthur's announcement from Manila that all landings in Japan had been postponed for two days because of typhoons.

(There was no indication from General MacArthur's headquarters that occupation plans had been reset on the original dates.)

Three C-47s will be the first to reach the Atsugi airdrome area, 7 miles west of Yokohama and 16 miles southwest of Tokyo. They will land in the mid-morning.

Will Land Equipment

They will be the first of a dozen transports to be flown by the veteran 317th Troop Carrier group.

The first planes to reach Atsugi will carry radio, jeeps and other equipment, in addition to personnel.

The first transports to arrive will take on fuel zrought in by later arrivals, then return to their Okinawa bases.

Special precautions are being taken to prevent stowaways on the historic first landing in Japan.

The surrender signing aboard the Battleship Missouri in Tokyo bay is scheduled for Aug. 31.

"It is hoped that by that time wind and seas will have abated to an extent that will permit our forward movement," said the supreme commander of the Allied powers.

The Tokyo area already had been hard hit by a typhoon Wednesday night and MacArthur said "a series of typhoons" are raging in the western Pacific between Okinawa and Japan.

The initial airborne landing forces were making final preparations to depart from Okinawa.

Seaborne forces already were at sea. Several convoys of supply vessels have left Manila. Others are leaving today.

No reports had been received here of any storm damage to American vessels.

The massive Pacific fleet, augmented by minesweepers and transports, was off Japan. Broadcasts today from the warships reported they had 100 major caliber guns ready to point at Tokyo bay just in case any trouble developed.

The Clowns Weren't Amused

The U. S. O. dossier on officer trouble in the handling of its camp shows continues to grow. Latest complaints are from the Jack Benny and Eddie Bracken troupes. Benny, home after his third overseas tour, has stated publicly that his troupe strongly opposed segregation of officers from enlisted men at their shows and preferred a policy of first come first served in choice of seats. Bracken's complaint is similar.

In an interview with Stars and Stripes, he told how his troupe voted to cancel a performance on Saipan when officers were given a large bloc of choice seats at the expense of some 14,000 enlisted men waiting to see the show. After a heated exchange with the colonel in charge, explained the actor, he was ordered to take his show and get out, which was done.

The cartoonists and jokesmiths have tried hard to ginger up the realization that the officer caste has kept a toehold on a people's army, but apparently it isn't in the least amusing in some of its more blatant manifestations. When thousands of homesick Americans are crowded into a field to see a troupe of entertainers, the only claim to special position that makes sense is based on the degree of lonesomeness.

But Now It's Our Money

An amateur at international finance hardly can be blamed for wondering who is going to get the blame under the new setup when things go wrong, as they undoubtedly will from time to time.

In the old days, every mistake in the handling of international accounts could be blamed on international bankers. Congressmen made speeches about it, politicians sought votes on the issues of prejudice fanned into flame, and that was that.

But under the new dispensation, as it is being planned for the taxpayer-stockholders, the politicians themselves will have to take the rap if the dollars get fumbled. The embarrassment is starting already. Some of the taxpayer-stockholders are beginning to wonder why their dollars should be invested in Britain, because they don't like the British government. Others have voiced the same doubt about Russia.

It was shortsighted when United States capital furnished funds for rehabilitation of a Germany determined to start another war and when a Peruvian bond was almost as silly as a gold brick. A lot of blameless citizens were stuck for someone else's errors in judgment—but only a fraction of the horde which is going to be stuck under the new dispensation when the taxpayers get stuck for the official errors that inevitably will be made in the handling of international credit. It's our money at stake now, not the international bankers'.

Lethal Performance

Japanese estimates of bombing damage—10,000,000 persons killed, wounded or made homeless, with a quarter of a million casualties from the two atomic bombs alone—have given us a reliable gauge of the proportions of United States air power.

The lethal performance that was staged to bring Japan to its surrender decision is the source material for what obviously is going to be one of the most intensive research studies ever made of military tactics. The aerial attack on Japan already is a classic of greater importance than the great campaigns that tacticians have studied for generations to school themselves in the art of war.

It contains the elements on which the United Nations are building their plans of cooperative security in the years ahead; in all plans for collective action to hold aggressors in check, the striking power of aviation is the prime factor. The United Nations—and the United States in particular—have set the task of finding a way to use the potentialities of aerial destruction to disclose new potentialities of security. The proportions of the latter have been established by the demonstration of air power at Japan's expense. When 10,000,000 persons can be listed as direct casualties of an aerial attack that had not even reached its maximum strength, the possibilities of air power are almost beyond calculation.

No Actual Defeat

It cannot be determined how much longer Japan might have waged war, if it had decided to expose all parts of the homeland to defeat. It would have been a long time—long enough to kill many thousands of United States invasion troops.

The fact cannot be impressed on American realization of the war with Japan too much—that the Japanese at the last minute decided not to fight it out. Their government made the decision to surrender, instead. The results of that decision will be widespread and far-reaching.

An early one is the warning broadcast by Domei news agency that demonstrations against Gen. MacArthur's army of occupation are to be expected by military men "without any experience of actual defeat on the field of battle".

The vast difference between surrender as a means of averting complete defeat and surrender as an acknowledgement of complete defeat was a lesson learned at the cost of millions of lives and billions of dollars after World war I. For a generation, Germans found solace in the fact they had suffered no actual defeat; they had surrendered. Their confidence grew as the war receded, until in 1939 Hitler was ready to lead them into a new war. For better or worse, the same circumstances have been created in Japan.

The Stars Say

For Sunday, August 26.

SUNDAY'S horoscope holds augury of an alert mentality, with plenty of constructive ideas and plans, and energy to put over important projects or shove things into new channels, yet there is found a depressing or lagging state of physical inclinations, which may be adverse to going in with might and main to win such objectives. If conflicts or arguments arise there may be a disposition to "let it slide" or postpone important issues. Public and group interests thrive.

Those whose birthday it is may be stimulated mentally to many bright and constructive ideas, with a desire to push affairs into other channels of operation However, there is either a lack of physical energy, with depression, or a disposition to postpone important matters or to sidestep disagreeable or acrimonious arguments or conflicts. Should public or community welfare be at stake there might be more inclination to take action.

A child born on this day has a lively and constructive mind, but a tendency to postpone or ignore disagreeable situations or conflicts.

For Monday, August 27

MONDAY'S astrological forecast is for a decisive and lively stepping-up of lagging interests, with fine initiative, fresh plans and progressive objectives. Important issues are involved, perhaps with personal interference or conflict to be definitely disposed of before real productive work may be inaugurated. Shun tempestuous scenes, desire for injuries and reprisals, and major projects and ambitions may benefit by a determined boost and stimulated energies.

Those whose birthday it is may find themselves confronted by a desire and opportunity for putting over important projects, with change and highly constructive developments, but may be hindered by some personal factors, perhaps interference of family or others, with arguments, quarrels, vengeance and show of temperament. This should be amicably disposed of and differences compromised before real progress may be expected. A good time for renewal of contracts.

A child born on this day may be well endowed mentally, with initiative and enterprise capable of reaching high position, but a disposition to argue and to scenes in private life should be curbed.

GUARDING YOUR HEALTH

Treatment of Diverticulosis

BY HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M. D.

WHEN weakness occurs in the wall of an inner tube, a small outpouching may develop. This is much like what happens in a person who develops a condition known as diverticulosis. Weakness in the wall of the intestine permits outpouching to occur. These outpouchings are known as diverticuli. In many instances, these diverticuli may be present for a long time without causing any symptoms whatsoever, and are discovered accidentally during the course of a general examination when an X-ray plate of the intestine is taken.

However, some patients with diverticuli may suffer from mild symptoms, such as mild attacks of discomfort in the abdomen and, perhaps, constipation. Frequently, inflammation develops in these diverticuli and the condition is known as diverticulitis. This disorder is responsible for attacks of pain in the abdomen together with constipation and, at times, diarrhea or frequent bowel movements.

Cause Unknown

Just what causes diverticuli to form is not known, nor is there any method of prevention which may be suggested other than, perhaps to avoid constipation. Furthermore, once these diverticuli have developed, there is no way of eliminating them other than by surgery.

Often in diverticulitis, the condition may be so severe as to produce blocking of the opening through the bowel. This disorder is known as bowel obstruction and is a serious condition. When such bowel obstruction develops, operation to relieve the condition is needed as soon as possible. A preliminary operation is usually done known as a colostomy in which an opening from the large bowel through the abdominal wall to the outside is made.

Second Operation

There are some who favor a second operation soon after the first to remove the affected part of the bowel. However, many other surgeons think it is a good plan to wait for six to twelve months before performing a second operation to determine if, perhaps, the condition may be relieved by the natural healing processes.

Even in those cases in which there is no obstruction of the bowel produced by the diverticulitis, the making of a colostomy may be a helpful form of treatment. By giving the bowel rest, healing of the inflammation often occurs. Then no further operative procedure may be required other than to close up the colostomy. In each case, however, the surgeons will decide.

Your GI Rights

Questions and Answers On Problems of the Servicemen

WASHINGTON—Here are some questions from GIs who have just returned from overseas:

Q. I live in a college town, am married and own a house. What I want to know is, can I borrow money from the government to fix up my house and also get money to attend school?

A. You can't borrow money directly from the government to repair your house, but you can get a loan guaranteed for that purpose. In addition, you can also receive educational benefits under the GI Bill of Rights. There is nothing to say you can't get more than one benefit under that act.

Q. My brother and I were farmers before I went into the Army. While I have been overseas he has taken care of our farm. We now have a chance to buy an adjoining piece of property which I think is valuable. The question is may a veteran purchase property with a non-veteran?

A. Yes. The guaranty in this case would apply only to the interest of the veteran in the loan, and may not exceed 50 per cent of his interest. Under no circumstances could is cover any part of the interest of a non-veteran.

Q. I have been thinking of opening a shoe store in my home town as soon as I am discharged. I had just gotten out of business school before I went into the Army and this sounds like a pretty good thing. I knew I qualify for all the GI benefits but is there anything about having to have experience in a business before you can get a loan to start it?

A. The law provides that the Administrator of Veterans' Affairs must find "that the ability and experience of the veteran, and the conditions under which he proposes to pursue such occupation are such, that there is a reasonable likelihood he will be successful."

Boyle's COLUMN

BY ROBBIN COONS

OKINAWA—"That dam sweet po-tato's up again."

Lieut. E. A. Luehman, Milwaukee, Wis., sat on his bunk in his tent at fleet air wing one and glowered at the vine growing in the center of the "living room" floor, crawling under a rack made of salvaged crates.

Luehman, a privateer pilot, looked at it with disgust. So did his tent-mates, Lieut. J. Edwin Kyle, Jr., New Iberia, La., an administrative officer, and Lieut. Wright E. James, an air combat intelligence officer who used to be a Bakersfield, Calif. lawyer.

"You should have seen this place when we first set up the tent," said Kyle. "Made you sick. Three feet of mud—and sweet potatoes growing all over. We had to root 'em out. That one there" — he indicated the persistent potato—"keeps coming back."

Lieut. Wyatt R. Blassingame, Ana Maria, Fla., dropped in. He's an ACI officer, a big dark-bearded party chap they call "Hobo." "Hobo" is a fiction writer—action stories. But here he is surrounded by action and he's not writing a line. Hadn't written anything, he said, since he'd been in the Navy which is 33 months—except for a couple of stories he dashed off last summer when he was in the states.

"Busy—and no privacy when I'm writing," he explained.

Talk of this and that—home and fliers and atomic bombs and Russia. And fliers..... Lieut. George H. Shortlidge, Keene, N. H., the time he flew his privateer 570 miles on two engines, low on the water all the way after a mission... And AOM 2C Donald Berger, Monroeville, Ohio, a crewman who was getting a silver star, a Purple Heart, and an advanced rating all in one day—for putting ont a fire in his airborne plane, virtually with his bare hands..... And Lieut. Comdr. Carl C. Schmuck, Jasper, Ind.

Schmuck's been at it from the very beginning of the Jap war.

"Times really have changed," said Schmuck. "I was in the Philippines then, and we had a patrol squadron which lasted two days—a couple of Jap attacks and most of our planes were knocked out. We consolidated with another squadron and the Dutch gave us five more planes..... By the time we reached Australia, retreating, we had three left out of 45! Now we have to search hard for Jap shipping—in those days we had a standing joke: If we saw more than one ship, it had to be enemy!"

WHAT EVERY WOMAN KNOWS...

Well, here it is 1955! And Tom in business for himself—already heading for a real success.

Set himself up with those matured War Bonds we bought back in the 1940's—four dollars for every three we saved originally!

Back in 1945, even, we knew it would turn out this way. Buying all the Bonds we could. And saving them . . . for our future! Tom's a wonderful husband. And he deserves all the credit.

Well, almost all!

There was a time—that was back in 1945, too, I guess—when he needed a little help from me. I found he'd let down on his Bond buying. Not only that, he actually almost suggested we cash in a Bond or two to pay for something we wanted . . .

And that's where I put my foot down!

"YOU LISTEN TO ME, Tom Lapham," I told him. "Don't you know that the biggest difference between a success and a failure is that the success sticks to his plans? I don't want to be married to a man who hasn't the resolution (or maybe I said 'gumption') to slack off on what he knows is right! You're not going to sabotage our future!"

I guess every husband needs a wifely dressing down once in a while! And thank heaven Tom listened to me!

We kept our Bonds—and bought more and more of 'em! First thing we knew, we had enough so we began feeling secure. That gave Tom confidence—helped him get ahead. And this year, enough bonds matured to make our dreams come true!

TOM'S A SUCCESS—yet he might have failed if I hadn't spoken at the right time. And, of course, he's forgotten. I wouldn't dream of reminding him—it's a secret between us girls.

MORAL: Think of your future—hang on to your bonds! And keep on buying more!

WAR BONDS...to have and to hold!

Salem China's 6-0 Margin Over News Keeps Them 1st In Tight 3rd Round Race

The Salem China stayed right at the top of the Class A league race last night at Centennial park by smashing a player-shy Salem News 6-0 as the Recreation continued its improved brand of ball, defeating Demings 1-0 on "Wink" Miller's double with one on in the sixth frame.

Miller, who has been pacing the league in the runs-batted-in department for several weeks, lashed out a sharp double in the sixth to pull the air-tight ball game out of a scoreless tie for the Old Timers. Pitcher Ralph Gregg, on base on a fielder's choice, scored the lone run.

The win puts the Recreation up among the second place outfits and in a position to do some good this round, should the Potters drop a second contest. Only Leetonia and the China are with but a single loss.

Gregg Hurls Well

Gregg turned in some top-notch hurling for the Old Timers last night, walking a single man, fanning another and allowing the Pumpers but four hits. The Rec went through the contest with one error, while Deming had two.

Kenney Bruderly, always tough to better, gave up six safeties to the Old Timers, two of them coming in the sixth, when the only run scored. Bruderly walked two and fanned a pair.

The China had an easy time with the News, playing minus a roving-shortstop. Pitcher Chet Brautigam limited the Potters to a scattered eight hits, but four News errors, two with men on base, helped mount the winners total. Brautigam walked two men, one intentionally, and fanned none.

Dale Ritchie hurled his usual air-tight game, allowing but a single hit, walking two and posting no strikeouts.

Orie Wright, batting left-handed once again, lashed out the only hit from Ritchie's offerings in the fifth inning.

Monday the league begins play of postponed third round games, with the News facing Mullins in the early fray.

Sport Chatter

BY HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Aug. 25. — Maybe you think the best way to change a golf score card is to tear the darn thing up, but George Corcoran, Greensboro, N. C., pro, says "The card should be designed to give a player, after he finishes his round of golf, knowledge of how many putts he made, iron shots and woods," says Corcoran. "If you make a birdie on the round, it just shows the figure, and I believe there should be some way to show how it was made." We might add such cards would be a great help to figger filberts and guys who write about golf..... "There should be several types of cards" George continues. "One for the tournament golfer, one for the spectator—also one for the conscientious golfer, showing just how many trees he hit during the round, how many divots he took, how many footprints he made in the sandtraps, etc." .

HOT SUMMERS

Bill Summers, the American league umpire, tells this one..... On a boiling hot day in Cleveland, Jeff Heath asked permission to go from his position to the Indians dugout for a drink of water..... As Jeff turned away, Bill called: "Bring me a piece of ice, Jeff." A moment later Jeff marched out toward first base lugging a chunk of ice that weighed all of 15 pounds, tossed it into Summers' arms and trotted out to his position..... Bill chuckled and called a batboy to remove the ice.

HEAD OF THE CLASS

Lieut. J. F. Scull, star of U. of Pennsylvania end back in 1927, is an instructor at the Naval Academy preparatory school at Bainbridge, Md. So don't be surprised if some of "Hag" Hagberg's Navy footballers come to be known as "Scull's Skulls."

650 PHEASANTS IN COUNTY RELEASED

County Game Warden Lon W. Boring and representatives of the Columbiana County Fish & Game Protective association have begun the distribution of 650 young pheasants throughout the county.

The pheasants were obtained from the State Division of Conservation and were boarded out to various gaming clubs and also to farmers in the counay who cared for them and gave them a good start in life. The birds are about nine weeks old at this time and should be able to "scratch" for themselves.

CUBS DON'T TALK ABOUT PENNANTS, JUST PLAY BALL

Manager Grimm Doesn't Allow Team To Worry About Flag Race

BY AL VERMEER

NEW YORK — Uttered in the Cubs' dugout, pennant is a horrid word. Seated in one corner was Charlie Gromm. Following an exchange of pleasantries, we asked the manager how he felt about the flag. His smile vanished. His eyebrows shot upward.

"Pennant!" exclaimed the boss of the Chicagos. "We don't know anything about a pennant on this club. We don't even talk about one."

What do the Wrigleys talk about?

"All we talk or think about is the game directly in front of us." replied the head man of the outfit pulling away from National league rivals. "Today's game. Win today and worry about tomorrow tomorrow. That's what I tell these fellows.

"We try not to pay any attention to the standings. And if any bird on this bench begins chirping about how he's going to spend his World Series dough, he's liable to get himself creased behind the ear with a bat!"

What Grimm is guarding against is nerves. Many a front-running aggregation has gone to pot because players realized the importance of their position and took cognizance of the fact that every other team in the circuit was trying to knock them off. Players in that situation fret, lay awake nights, lose their appetites.

So far, this has not happened to the Bruins.

Not Serious

"We don't take ourselves too seriously," continued Grimm. "When we lose a game we do not exactly throw a party but we try to take it lightly. We look ahead to the next game. I think keeping a spirit like that in my clubhouse and on my bench is my most important job right now.

"It is foolish to dream of a pennant when the race still has more than a month to run. You cannot take anything for granted in this business. The Cardinals are still a threat. The Dodgers occasionally make faces like contenders. Chicago will not celebrate until the bunting is safely lashed to the Wrigley tower."

Someone suggested that the Cubs would be leading by perhaps 15 games had not Bull Nicholson, 1944 slugging champion, succumbed to his year-long slump. Grimm said he didn't think so. He is grateful for the fine batting of Peanuts Lowery, Len Merullo, Don Johnson and others who picked up the slack. Of course the big guns are Phil Cavarretta, Andy Pafko and Stan Hack. But they are no surprise. They figured to hit.

"Nicholson had three great hitting years and is entitled to an off-season," said Grimm. "Even so he has driven in more than 60 runs. He has done a remarkable job in the field.

"You certainly can't say that his presence has weakened us."

Neither can you say that the Cubs are going to win the National League pennant—not in the Cubs' dugout.

IT'S CONTAGIOUS!

Bob Feller Certain To Be An Important Factor When Pennant Race Is Near Over

By JACK HAND,
Associated Press Sports Writer

Bobby Feller, after 44 months in the Navy, looms as the No. 1 factor in the American league today with the junior circuit so well balanced that return of one super pre-war star can upset the applecart.

Detroit, in its nine remaining meetings with Cleveland, will face Rapid Robert three more times. Washington has only three more with the Tribe, all bunched in one series, so that the Nats will see Feller only once.

Feller conceivably could hurl Cleveland to the flag, for the Tribe in fifth place is only 8½ lengths off the pace but their recent disastrous series with Washington just about snuffed out that hope. It is the threat of Robert beating a contender, probably Detroit, that holds the dynamite.

Any doubt about Feller's ability to resume his position as the boss man in the league was dissipated last night when he whiffed 12 Tigers and allowed only four hits in trimming Hal Newhouser, 4-2.

"Of course, I'll be able to reach a keener edge as I go along," said Feller in a tone calculated to chill American league hitters.

Washington advanced to within a half game of the top by sitting in a hotel room and planning their strategy for today's doubleheader against the Yankees after yesterday's game was rained out.

St. Louis Wins

Al Hollingsworth earned his fifth straight and ninth of the year for St. Louis at Chicago's expense, 3-1, as the Brownies took third place.

The tattered Cardinals put a snag in the Cubs' world series plans by a 1-0 stopper in the opener of a big three-game series.

Harry (The Cat) Brecheen, recovered from arm trouble and one of the league's best southpaws, blanked the Bruins with four hits while the Red Birds took advantage of an error to ruin Hank Borowy's three-hit chucking.

St. Louis now has tripped Chicago eight times in 11 starts and they still have 11 more to go. It could be the handwriting on the wall for they're only 4½ games away.

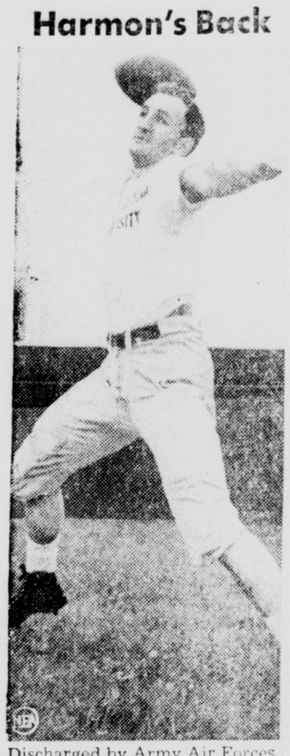

Cincinnati pulled out of a six-game losing dive by beating Pittsburgh, 2-1. The veteran Ed Heusser scattered eight hits to decision Nick Strincevich.

A New York at Brooklyn game in the National was washed into a doubleheader today as was a Boston at Philadelphia tilt. The Boston Red Sox and Philadelphia Athletics of the American were not scheduled.

Scrub typhus, contracted by some of the troops in the Pacific area and resulting in 1 per cent to 30 per cent fatalities, is being controlled by the impregnation of GI clothing with a new chemical, dimethylphthalate, in conjunction with regular preventives used by Army doctors.

Of the 3,000,000 miles of highways in the United States, 2,500,000 miles, or 85 per cent, are classed as mud or dust.

Discharged by Army Air Forces, Tom Harmon, Michigan's All-America back, works with College All-Stars at Evanston's Dyche Stadium in preparation for game with Green Bay Packers at Chicago's Soldier Field, Aug. 30.

The World Today

We shall make good lads out of the Japs—or break their necks in the attempt. But we shouldn't allow ourselves to entertain the mistaken idea that it's our business to take revenge. Our job is to administer justice and to further world peace by reforming Japan, which was one of the great aggressor nations of the world, the other being Germany.

Barring untoward incidents, the Allied attitude towards Japan probably will be the same as we have seen in the case of Germany and Italy—firm and businesslike but just and directed towards reform. The world hasn't seen the Allies exhibiting any of the barbaric characteristics which we fought the war to destroy in the Axis and Japan. Even in Germany, invaded and cut to pieces as it was, we have set local governments of citizens to work putting their own house in order.

Of course, we mustn't overlook the possibility of trouble in some places as we occupy Japan. The country is tense and the Jap military might make difficulties. If this happens, we shall use the strong arm. Short of that, however, nobody intends to use the lash on Nippon.

So far as the American fighting man is concerned, he doesn't carry grudges long. As Fred Hampson, A.P. war correspondent in the Pacific, remarks: "Your G.I. has a horrible time hating anybody he knows a little bit."

Stage Daylight Robbery

FREMONT, Aug. 25.—Two armed bandits robbed the state wine store of $180 yesterday in the first downtown daylight robbery in 15 years. The pair tied the clerk, Mrs. Jeanne Kallman, in the rear of the store and robbed a customer of $3.

CANTON, Aug. 24.—Mrs. Nellie W. Link, 27, of Joffre, Pa., was injured Friday and several other passengers shaken, when several cars of the Pennsylvania railroad's west-bound passenger train "Admiral" were derailed here. Railway spokesmen said a broken axle caused the mishap.

Large Truck Tires Will Be Issued At Liverpool

Centralized rationing of large truck tires will no longer be controlled through the Cleveland board after Sept. 1, the OPA announced today. Columbiana county users will secure their tires through the East Liverpool ration board.

The step is being instigated, OPA officials said, in anticipation of an easing of the supply situation in the near future. However, boards in control of truck rationing have been instructed to screen all applications carefully so that the tires will be distributed for the best of the communities until the supply is adequate for all.

Regular passenger car applications and all other tires will be handled in the same manner as in the past, at least temporarily, OPA says.
